After a speedy recovery on the weekend, the cryptocurrency market was back in red, which reminded the dreary days of September when the recession and inflation worries hurt the market a lot. Bitcoin coin of crypto held the $ 19,000 mark when Ethereum was slipping below the $ 1,300 mark. Amid rising fears, crypto tracked equities markets.

Top cryptocurrency tokens traded lower mostly on Monday; if you notice, the stablecoins, Tron, and BNB were the only altcoins in green on the chart. XRP moved over 5 percent, whereas Cardano, Ethereum, Solana, Avalanche, and Dogecoin shed 2 percent each.

The global crypto market cap was trading lower marginally at $928.34 billion, dropping about a percent in the last twenty-four hours. If you analyze the total, trading volume zoomed as much as 24 percent, which is close to $45.24 billion.

Global Updates About Cryptocurrency

In the middle of the global economic slowdown, crypto exchange WazirX has reportedly laid off 40 percent of its workplace. A total of 150 workers at the exchange were asked to go as per the sources.

Uzbekistan needs licensed crypto companies in the country to pay the monthly fees. This monthly fee will go to the Budget. Cryptocurrency exchange Binance has registered as a financial service provider in New Zealand and also launched Binance New Zealand.

As we know that it's been more than 15 years since IBM stopped making ThinkPad laptops but still, because of Lenovo w, we are able to see them in the market. A well-known company Legend Computers of Beijing, China, still produces the best and most well-regarded laptop line with its best AccuType keyboard. Now Lenovo machines are ranging well beyond the classic black ThinkPad slabs and some of them in silver.

However, Lenovo continues to innovate the best laptops with radical designs over time. The rotating screen family influenced other PC manufacturers like HP, Dell, and Acer to adopt its basic mechanism in their own laptop design. Now Lenovo's high-concept devices also include the first foldable-screen PC, ThinkPad. It is sometimes hard to decide which laptops we should buy. If you are thinking of buying one of the best Lenovo laptops, then we have a great useful list of the best Lenovo laptops for you.
